

Arizona Telemedicine Course: Advances in Telemedicine and Telehealth

Target audience:

Healthcare professionals or administrators who are new to telemedicine, who have some telehealth experience and want to expand services and/or understand successful applications of the technology, or who represent an experienced telemedicine organization

Registration is limited

Go to http:// telemedicine.arizona.edu/training

Lunch is provided for registered attendees.

Questions:

Tracy Skinner: 520-626-6103
Nancy Rowe: 928-266-1164

Presented by the Arizona Telemedicine Program and the Southwest Telehealth Resource Center with cosponsors Health Choice Integrated Care, North Country Healthcare and Northern Arizona Healthcare

The Arizona Telemedicine Program's training events are accredited by the American Telemedicine Association.

Telemedicine Training Conference

Flagstaff Medical Center's McGee Auditorium

1200 N. Beaver St., Flagstaff, AZ

Friday, November 3, 2017 9 am – 3:45 pm

$300 registration fee waived for Arizona residents

Nationally recognized speakers will present on:

- Direct-to-consumer telemedicine partnerships
- Telepsychiatry
- Regional telehealth programs
- eICU (electronic intensive care unit)
- A systemwide approach to telemedicine
- Sustainable telemedicine
- VA telehealth programs in Arizona
- Project ECHO programs
- Telemedicine and telehealth standards and guidelines
- Telemedicine facilities and devices

